

Economics of Emerging Nations

Ball State University

2011 Michælmas Term

September	week 1	Lecture 1	Introduction to Economics of Emerging Nations
		Lecture 2	Ideology and Economic Development in XX century week 2	Lecture 1	Input -Output Tables: Examples of Russia and the Czech Republic
		Lecture 2	Soviet Union: The Greatest Debacle week 3	Lecture 1	Yugoslavia and Self-Management. Hyperinflation
		Lecture 2	Basic Growth Models week 4	Lecture 1	Growth Slowdown Models
		Lecture 2	Human Capital and Development
October	week 5	Lecture 1	Increased Inequality During Transition
		Lecture 2	Midterm test week 6	Lecture 1	Asymmetric Information: Signaling Lecture 2	Corruption and Unofficial economy week 7	Lecture 1	Working with Data: Surveys on Corruption Lecture 2	Role of Institutions in Development
November	week 8	Lecture 1	The Case of East Germany. Problems of Reunification
		Lecture 2	China and Globalization week 9	Lecture 1	Economics of Privatization Lecture 2	Sustainable Development and Future Prospect week 10	Lecture 1	Finnacing Economic Development (WB, IMF, MDG, &c.)
		Lecture 2	Foreign Direct Investments week 11	Lecture 1	Student presentations
		Lecture 2	Final exam
Dec	week 12	Lecture 1	Returning the finals and solutions from the final Lecture 2	Recap

* End of week 6 - deadline for the outline for the term paper

* End of week 10 - deadline for the term paper

* Beginning of week 11 - deadline for student presentations

* Trips and study visits will be announced in advance