

LABOR ECONOMICS II Spring 2019:

FINAL PROGRAMME OF THE MINI-CONFERENCE 2019:

Thursday 21.3.2019, room 3.

TIME	PRESENTING GROUP	TITLE	Discussant
11.20		Welcome
11.30-12.00	Michal Hakala, Galia Gazizova, Martin Kamenik	ICT and International Migration	Adam Martonosi
12.00-12.30	Ella Sargsyan, Olga Novikova, Martin Strobl	The Effects of Labor Migration on the Perception of HIV/STD Risks and Health Conditions of Migrant Men and Their Wives	Daniil Kashkarov, Anna Pestova, Mikhail Mamonov
12.30-13.00	Daniil Kashkarov, Anna Pestova, Mikhail Mamonov	Childcare Availability and Local Labor Market Conditions: What Drives Female Labor Supply?	Ivan Trestcov, Aishamal Rakhmetova, Danilo and Dusan Stojanovic
13.00-13.30	Adam Martonosi	The role of technological progress on the labor markets of the CEE countries	Ella Sargsyan, Olga Novikova, Martin Strobl
13.30-14.00	Ivan Trestcov, Aishamal Rakhmetova, Danilo and Dusan Stojanovic	Immigrant-Native Wage Gap - New Evidence from Germany	Michal Hakala, Galia Gazizova, Martin Kamenik

Mini-conference:

The mini-conference will take place in the classroom 3 (as usual) on Thursday March 21st, 2019. We will start at 11.20 am. Everybody is expected to be there at 11.20am sharp! ☺

Above you find a schedule of your presentations. We have scheduled 30 minutes per group. Out of that there are approx. 20-25 minutes for the presentation, and up to 5-10 minutes for discussants, comments from me and a general discussion. As you may notice, each team/group gets assigned a role of discussant for another team's paper. By now you all received your fellow students' assignment you shall comment upon. The comments from discussants can be, but do not have to be, in PPT presentation form. Please bring USB or send your presentation to me by e-mail. Make sure your presentation is easy to follow.

Once again, it is very important to note that you stay during the entire time of the mini-conference. Please remember that your performance at the mini-conference will make up a part of your grade. Consequently those that will not participate at the mini-conference will have to work harder on the final assignment paper in order to keep a good grade.

After the mini-conference, you can choose to incorporate/address the comments that you received at the mini-conference from your fellow students and the teachers into the final version of your assignment – in order to improve your assignment. You will have around 3 weeks to “Revise and Resubmit” your assignment, the deadline for the final version of your paper is Tuesday April 11th, 2019.

If any questions please do not hesitate to email me anytime: Mariola.pytlikova@cerge-ei.cz.